

Document Solutions for Legal

Law Firm teams up with MTS Software Solutions resulting in less paper and more productivity

Summary

A large Civil Litigation law firm in Philadelphia Pennsylvania that handles a variety of legal matters including defending insurance companies, hospitals, and toxic tort litigation needed a way to save time and money. The company needed a way to reduce the reliance on paper which would ultimately increase productivity. MTS Software Solutions provided a solution that accomplished their goals.

Challenges

- Difficult to keep track of all paper files
- Excessive cost of paper
- Lacking efficiency and work productivity

Why Fortis with MTS Software Solutions?

- The law firm was able to scan all documents and instantly capture every past, current, and future file
- The software indexes and populates all fields to automate the workflow processes
- All files are securely backed up

Solutions provided by MTS Software Solutions

- MTS gives prompt responses to all service needs
- MTS keeps the business apprised of all technological advancements and allows this law firm to stay ahead of the business curve

ROI

- Increased workflow efficiency
- Increased employee productivity
- Decreased cost of paper and storage
- Increased security of all legal documents

“As you are aware, our law firm began our business relationship with MTS in 2005. I must say that you and your team of employees have been very courteous, attentive, and professional toward our organization. We receive prompt responses toward our service needs, as well as keeping us apprised of new technological advancements MTS is striving for to remain ahead of the business curve which ultimately has enhanced our current product thereby increasing efficiency and work productivity of my staff”

– Company spokesperson