

Document Solutions for Medical Manufacturing

Medical Manufacturer benefits from MTS Software Solutions Resulting in Removal of all Paper Records

Summary

A large medical manufacturer in northern New Jersey, who makes medical devices, was taken over by paper files. Since this company distributed world-wide, they had files for every client and were spending a small fortune on paper and on storage. MTS Software Solutions was able to implement a solution was converted all of their paper files into a digital format which saved paper, money, and time.

Challenges

- Difficult to locate specific files
- Delayed important communication between departments
- Security could have easily been compromised due to unorganized file storage

Why Oracle with MTS Software Solutions?

- Oracle stores all documents online and can be retrieved instantly
- Password protected software eliminates security issues
- By removing paper, this company was able to eliminate all storage for their documents and records

Solutions provided by MTS Software Solutions

- MTS customized a software solution which allowed this company to go paperless
- The integration of this system created instant recall of secure documents and more organization throughout the company

ROI

- Increased employee productivity
- Increased bottom-line revenue by eliminating storage space
- Improved security of documents
- Eliminated overtime for employees by getting rid of document search time

“Our biggest problem was the overwhelming amounts of paper and clients files. MTS Software Solutions created a unique solution which helped us eliminate paper, but also save us money on storage and employee overtime. We have instant access to all of our documents, even those that are older. What a difference this system made for us.”

– Company spokesperson